Additionally, "Confidential Materials" shall mean any documents that the Court directs to be produced subject to this order.

2. Plaintiffs shall not use the Confidential Materials for any purpose other than for the preparation or presentation of their case in the above-captioned action, including appeal.

3. Plaintiffs shall not disclose the Confidential Materials to any person not a member of the staff of the parties' attorneys' offices, except under the following conditions:

 - b. Disclosure before trial may be made only to a party; to litigation support vendors retained by a party's attorneys; to an expert who has been retained or specially employed by a party's attorneys in anticipation of litigation or preparation for this action or that experts support staff; to a witness at or in preparation for deposition; to a witness in preparation for trial; or to the Court.

The signed consent shall be retained by counsel for the party disclosing the information and a copy shall be furnished to the other parties' attorneys upon their request.
4. Deposition testimony concerning any Confidential Materials that reveals the contents of such materials shall be deemed confidential by all parties, and the transcript of such testimony, together with any exhibits referred to therein, shall be separately bound, with a cover page prominently marked "CONFIDENTIAL."
